

WORKSHEET 2: IDENTIFYING PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES

Use parentheses to mark the prepositional phrases.

1. The Egyptian exhibit at the Fine Arts Museum attracts hundreds of interested people each month of the year.
2. The boxer's fist left a mark on the right cheek of his opponent.
3. The funds from the summer job at Disney World provided her with ample funds for her tuition.
4. The cramp in his right leg lasted for an hour after the end of the marathon.
5. The buzzer sounded at the end of the game.
6. In front of us, an old man squinted in the bright sunlight and fanned himself with his newspaper.
7. The plot lost its appeal in Chapter Three.
8. The homemade stuffing from the turkey fell on the floor for the cat to eat.
9. The fox hid beneath the thick underbrush.
10. After a late-night work session, the technicians perfected the database system at work.
11. Within the first hour of the hike, one Boy Scout spotted a bald eagle at the top of a fir tree.
12. The city planners will meet to develop a budget for the new freeway system through town.
13. During the election, the mayor frequently spoke to the senior citizens in our community.
14. Waves crashed against the pier and smashed the picture window in the small diner.
15. The president of the board sent the confidential records to me via a courier.