

WORKSHEET 2: MARKING SENTENCES

Name _____ Date _____

Mark the prepositional phrases with parentheses and the infinitives with brackets. Underline the subjects once and the complete verbs twice.

1. The rescue workers and the Coast Guard dragged the river for the sunken car.
2. Your predictions about the end of the world are bizarre and ridiculous.
3. For your own protection, you need to invest in mutual funds and in municipal bonds.
4. The logs by the riverbed rotted and started to float down the swollen river.
5. The initial plan was to surprise him with a going-away party.
6. Both of the women on the city council voted to support the room tax and abolish the ten o'clock curfew.
7. The girls spent the day shopping and hanging out in the mall.
8. The swimming hole and the fishing docks offer free family entertainment.
9. The flattest part of the desert heats up and becomes unbearable in the summer.
10. Jessie's driver's permit and her credit cards fell out of her wallet and landed in the pond.
11. The teller processed the first transaction at the bank in a matter of seconds.
12. During the race, several runners skinned their knees and pulled muscles in their calves.
13. The toddler, the dog, and a young teenager strolled through the park.
14. Protecting the wildlife in the forests is the main goal of the nonprofit organization.
15. Your commitment, dedication, and energy inspire many people to do more with their own lives.
16. The fog rolled in from the ocean and shut down the airport for five hours.
17. The prize fighter quit his boxing career, started an acting career, and then designed some home cookware products.
18. To run a marathon, a person must train for many hours and learn a variety of strategies to maintain a high level of endurance.

Copyright Houghton Mifflin Company. All Rights Reserved.