

WORKSHEET 1: MARKING SENTENCES

Name _____ Date _____

Mark the prepositional phrases with parentheses and the infinitives with brackets. Underline the subjects once and the complete verbs twice.

1. The officers were citing people for not wearing seatbelts.
2. She placed the wrap around her shoulders and walked briskly down the street.
3. You must include the sources for your information at the end of your report.
4. The trainer will rap on the tiger's paw and then give him a treat for a reward.
5. Most of the drivers were craning their necks and slowing down to see the truck in the ditch.
6. Bob and Than had flattened the shipping crates, hauled them to the recycling bin, and cleaned the shipping dock by themselves.
7. Profiting from the hardship of others may produce a sense of guilt and remorse.
8. The attendant had not turned on the air pump.
9. First, I must find a new place to live.
10. Russ was calling all his friends and asking for their support in his campaign.
11. The meteorologist will give this weekend's forecast on the ten o'clock news tonight.
12. She had always kept tight reins on her son.
13. Praise is helpful to teach a dog to heel and to obey its master.
14. A short break will occur between the two tests.
15. Hundreds of refugees had tried to flee across the border and reach a safe territory.
16. The sailors on the Navy vessel were trying to maneuver through the rough waters.
17. Unfortunately, many people may see the initiative as unimportant and decide not to cast their votes to pass the initiative.

18. The climbers had vowed to work together to reach the top of the peak.

Copyright Houghton Mifflin Company. All Rights Reserved.