

Worksheet 1: Correcting Compound Sentences

Name _____ Date _____

Each sentence has at least one error. Use any method to correct all the errors you find in each sentence.

1. I gathered up all the catalogs junk mail, old newspapers; I had enough materials to start an enormous bonfire.
2. Fortunately I had saved all my receipts so I could return the merchandise for refunds.
3. All of the recipes calls for cinnamon sugar, and flour.
4. I refused to pay a disputed cable television bill, hence they discontinued my cable service.
5. I love to sit in the back yard, and listen to music.
6. Each of the boys laugh at my stupid jokes but my brother and mother rolls their eyes and groan at my jokes.
7. All of the active ingredients is listed on the label, however, many ingredients are foreign to me.
8. I do not agree with Mr. Forbes from Topeka Kansas; his opinion and attitude is so pessimistic and hateful.
9. My uncle's face turned red yet he refused to admit his mistake publicly.
10. The championship game was at stake but Justin unfortunately was in too much pain and could not play.