

Template for Recording Sources: Online and Electronic Sources

Author's (or editor's) last name

Author's first name

Additional authors (last name, first name)

Work's title and subtitle

Any information on publication of a print version (see templates for print books and articles)

Name of Web site, homepage, online journal, or database where article was found (e.g., InfoTrac, New York Times Ondisc)

If online journal, volume and issue number

If CD-ROM, name of distributor (e.g., UMI-ProQuest)

If on online database, access number

If online source with no print version, date of publication or posting

If discussion list or forum, name of list or forum (e.g., Usenet, listserv name)

Number of paragraphs (if given) or sections with headings

Sponsor or Web site or subscription service (e.g., university or institution)

Date of access (when you found the material)

URL or keywords used in AOL or other subscription services
